

Mary Tyler

Mary is a retired secondary school teacher. Her career was spent in Kent secondary schools where her roles included teacher of English and English Literature, Head of English and Deputy Headteacher.

Now, fully retired from the classroom, Mary helps with reading and writing in a couple of local primary schools; is a volunteer at the Rainbow Centre in Folkestone and enjoys singing, dancing and attending literary groups.

Living in Hythe, Mary worships at St Leonard's Church.